Four years prior to the start of the NCAA, UCLA softball brought home its first national championship in 1978 under the umbrella of the Association of Intercollegiate Athletics for Women (AIAW). After recording just 44 victories in their first three years of existence, the Bruins went 31-3 in 1978, starting and finishing the season strong with victories in 14 of their first 15 and 17 of their last 18. During the regular season, UCLA posted a 22-2 record, outscoring its opponents 101-17.

In her last season in her #6 UCLA uniform, future Hall of Fame coach Sue Enquist led the Bruins in hitting with a .391 batting average. The All-American also finished first on the squad with seven doubles and tied for the team lead with two home runs. Sophomore Kathy Maurice, an All-Region honoree, added seven triples and also belted two home runs. In all, five Bruins earned All-Region honors in 1978, with Enquist and Maurice joined by senior Lisa Richardson, junior Janice Wright and sophomore Gail Edson. Richardson and freshman Jan Jeffers keyed UCLA's success in the circle, as the Bruins posted a team earned run average of 0.30. Richardson led the team with a 0.19 ERA and 16 wins, while Jeffers has a 15-3 mark, a 0.43 ERA and a team-leading 91 strikeouts.

In the postseason, UCLA won its first three at Western Regionals, but all were 1-0 games with a pair going extra innings. The 28 innings in three days caught up to the Bruins on Championship Day against Cal Poly Pomona, losing 6-5 in the first contest. In game two in yet another 1-0 game, the Bruins advanced to the College World Series with an eight-inning victory over the Broncos. Cal Poly Pomona proved to be the Bruins' toughest test en route to the title, as UCLA outscored its opponents 18-0 in the season-ending tournament. In the final game against Northern Colorado, the Bruins prevailed 3-0 to claim their first national title. Jeffers earned three of the wins at Nationals, while Richardson picked up the other two. Enquist posted a tournament-best .421 batting average, while Edson hit .412 with a tournament-best nine RBI.

Having won the most NCAA softball championships, it was only fitting that the Bruins won the sport's first title under the umbrella of the National Collegiate Athletic Association in 1982. UCLA posted a 33-7-2 overall record, but were unable to get past Cal State Fullerton for the WCAA title (Western Collegiate Athletic Association), finishing second with a 15-4-1 mark.

First and foremost, pitching was the main catalyst for the Bruins, allowing just 18 runs for the entire season. UCLA gave up more than one run in a game just five times and 27 of its 33 victories came by shutout. During a 14-game winning streak from March 9 to April 16, the Bruins didn't allow a single run. All four pitchers on the UCLA staff appeared in between 10 and 15 games, keeping everybody fresh. A pair of freshmen keyed the Bruins' success, as All-American Tracy Compton had a team-low ERA of 0.21 and a 10-2 record, while Debbie Doom went 11-2 with a 0.31 ERA and a team-best 193 strikeouts. The upperclassmen did their part too. Senior Karen Andrews had 49 strikeouts, a 0.44 earned run average and a 6-2 record, while junior Lori Warkentin was 6-1 with a 0.25 ERA and 55 strikeouts. The pitching picked up the offensive attack, which went the entire season without a home run. Junior Dot Richardson led the Bruins with a .328 batting average en route to All-American honors, while All-American senior Gina Vecchione and sophomore Barbara Young tied for the team lead with 12 RBI.

In the postseason, the Bruins gave up just one run in seven victories to sweep through the competition. After easily dispatching of Wyoming at their home Regional, the Bruins came out on top in four straight, one-run games at the Women's College World Series, including a 1-0 victory over Cal State Fullerton. In the championship game, Doom struck out 12 and despite getting just one hit, the Bruins scored twice in the eighth inning to defeat Fresno State 2-0. Doom was named the Most Valuable Player of the College World Series, pitching 41.2 of the Bruins' 45 innings and striking out 62.

Behind the outstanding pitching duo of Tracy Compton and Debbie Doom, the 1984 Bruins won their third National Championship and their second NCAA title in three seasons. Finishing with a record of 45-6-1, UCLA claimed the WCAA title with a 7-3 conference record. Bruin hurlers gave up just 20 runs during the season and half of those runs were unearned. After dropping the first game of the season, UCLA won 21 in a row, outscoring its opponents 59-4 during the streak and tossing 18 shutouts. In all, 39 of the Bruins' 45 victories came by way of the shutout.

Doom spelled just that for opposing hitters, as the junior went 24-3 with a 0.10 earned run average and 282 strikeouts. Compton was equally as good, going 20-3 with a 0.29 ERA and 159 strikeouts. Both pitchers received All-American honors, two of four Bruins to earn the accolade that season. The other two All-Americans were on the hitting side. Freshman Tricia Mang led the team with a .376 average, seven home runs and 19 runs batted in. Senior Sheila Cornell also hit above .300 at .309, belting two homers and drawing 26 walks, almost three times as many as the next closest player.

UCLA swept past Arizona State in its home Regional, shutting out the Sun Devils in both games to advance to the Women's College World Series. After dispatching Utah State and Northwestern, the Bruins dropped their first game of the tournament, 2-0 to defending champion Texas A&M. UCLA rebounded with a 1-0 blanking of Nebraska to reach the final, but would need to beat Texas A&M twice to claim the championship. In game one, Mang drove in Mary Ricks for the contest's only run to take down the Aggies 1-0 and force a winner-take-all title matchup. Doom was in command in the circle, striking out 15 in the championship game. But it wasn't until the bottom of the 13th inning when the game was settled, as Mang hit a one-out homer to left field to give the Bruins the championship. Doom, Mang, Leslie Rover and Jennifer Simm were named to the All-Tournament Team.

Another extra-inning game and another walk-off win gave the Bruins back-to-back NCAA Championships in 1985. Recording its third-straight, 40-win season, UCLA began the year with 12 straight triumphs, and after its first setback of the year, reeled off another 11 victories in a row. The Bruins didn't allow more than three runs in a game and gave up more than one just five times.

As was the case during their 1984 championship run, it was the two-headed pitching monster of seniors Tracy Compton and Debbie Doom that propelled the Bruins. Terrorizing opposing hitters since their freshmen seasons, the duo combined for a 0.18 earned run average and 406 strikeouts. Compton led the nation and posted the second-best ERA in NCAA history at 0.08, giving up only two earned runs in 167 1/3 innings while striking out 172. She won 20 games, as did Doom, who struck out 232 with a 0.27 ERA in 180 innings. Both earned All-American accolades for the third straight season.

UCLA was on cruise control down the stretch, but faltered in its final three games of the regular season and then dropped the first game of Regional play to Pacific. The Bruins bounced back though with a pair of shutout victories over the Tigers to advance to the College World Series. UCLA never scored more than three runs in a game in the World Series, but didn't need to thanks to Compton and Doom's pitching. However, the Bruins had to fight out of the loser's bracket following a second-game loss to Cal State Fullerton. With its backs against the wall, UCLA won the next three, including a revenge win over the Titans, and advanced to the title game against Nebraska. The Bruins jumped out to a 1-0 lead in the second behind an RBI single by Chris Olivie, but Nebraska tied it in the fourth. The game went to extras, and in the bottom of the ninth, Janet Pinneau drove home the game-winner on a single to plate Leslie Rover for the championship. Compton, Doom, Olivie and Rover were each named to the College World Series All-Tournament Team.

After falling in the championship game to Texas A&M a year prior, the UCLA softball team brought the NCAA softball title back to Westwood in 1988. In the second year of the Pacific-10 Conference's existence, the Bruins won the league title with a 15-3 record and posted a 53-8 overall mark. UCLA had three separate winning streaks of at least eight games, including 16 in a row from March 21 to April 4. During that streak, the Bruins outscored their opponents 88-6, posting 10 shutouts along the way.

UCLA had four players hit over .300 on the season, with freshman Lorraine Maynez's .337 average leading the way. She also topped the team with 10 doubles and seven triples and was second with 32 runs scored and 29 RBI. Junior Janice Parks led the power department with six homers and 40 RBI, hitting .322. Both players earned first-team All-American honors, with Parks' accolade being her second award in as many seasons. In the circle, sophomore All-American Lisa Longaker handled the bulk of the duties, posting a nation-best 0.30 earned run average, a 31-4 record and 240 strikeouts. Junior Samantha Ford backed up Longaker with an 18-4 mark and a 0.87 ERA.

The NCAA Tournament began with a two-game sweep of Cal State Fullerton in Regional play. For the first time, the Women's College World Series was held in California, as the Bruins traveled north to Sunnyvale. UCLA won its first four games by a 16-2 margin to advance to the championship against Fresno State. Needing to win a pair from the Bruins, the Bulldogs took the first step with a 2-1 victory in game one, setting up a winner-take-all showdown for the title. As she had done all season, Longaker was masterful in the circle, hurling her 23rd shutout of the year. The Bruins gave her the only offense she needed in the fourth inning when Parks doubled in Stacy Sunny and Maynez to put UCLA on top 2-0. The Bruins added an insurance run in the seventh on a Shanna Flynn RBI single and won the sport's fifth national championship. Flynn, Longaker and Sunny were joined on the All-Tournament Team by Kerry Dienelt and Missy Phillips.

The Bruins made it back-to-back NCAA Championships in 1989, again besting Fresno State in the title game. Losing just four games during the season with 48 wins, the Bruins steamrolled through the Pac-10 with a league-best 18-2 record. UCLA had winning streaks of eight, 11 and 13, to go along with a season-ending streak of 16. The Bruins didn't allow a run until the ninth game of the season (88 innings) and had shutouts in their first 10 wins. In all, UCLA hurlers tossed 34 shutouts and gave up only 30 runs in 52 games.

In her first and only season in Westwood, freshman Tiffany Boyd led the nation with a 0.24 earned run average, going 19-4 with 172 strikeouts in the circle. Although not qualifying for the NCAA's top spot, senior Samantha Ford led the staff with a 0.14 ERA and an 11-1 record, while junior Lisa Longaker was 18-1 with a 0.64 ERA. In a rarity for UCLA, no pitchers earned All-American honors, but two hitters did in senior Janice Parks and sophomore Shanna Flynn. Parks led the team with a .426 batting average, 36 runs batted in, seven triples, 10 doubles and two home runs, while Flynn hit .353 with 10 RBI and a team-best seven stolen bases. Although they hit only four home runs, the Bruins batted at a .288 clip and still manufactured 209 runs during the season.

Yet another postseason began with an easy two-game sweep in Regional play, this time of Long Beach State, as the Bruins traveled to Sunnyvale for the second straight College World Series held in Northern California. UCLA ran the table in the first four games of the World Series and had a familiar foe in Fresno State in the championship game. For the second straight year, the Bulldogs were outdueled by a Bruin hurler, as Boyd held Fresno State to three hits while striking out six in the title tilt. Parks had three hits in the final game and Lorraine Maynez's RBI single to score Julie Poulos in the third inning was the only run the Bruins needed for their sixth national title. Boyd, Maynez and Parks were each honored on the College World Series All-Tournament Team and were joined by Kerry Dienelt and Missy Phillips.

Another NCAA Championship. Another title-game victory over Fresno State. 1990 would end the same way the previous two seasons ended, as the Bruins won the sport's seventh national title. UCLA cracked the 60-win mark for the first time in school history with a 62-7 record and claimed its third straight Pac-10 title with a 17-2 mark. During a 22-game winning streak from March 31 to May 3, the Bruins outscored their opponents 68-3 and did not allow a run for 122 straight innings over 13 games at one point.

As usual, it was the Bruin pitching that keyed the team's success, throwing 46 shutouts and posting a team ERA of 0.42. Four pitchers appeared in at least 15 games and three of them were freshmen, led by All-American Lisa Fernandez's 0.25 ERA and 11-1 record in just 83 innings. Newcomer Heather Compton went 18-1 with a 0.36 ERA and freshman DeeDee Weiman was 13-3 with a 0.64 ERA. The lone upperclassman of the staff was senior All-American Lisa Longaker, who led the team with 20 wins and had a 0.40 ERA. At the plate, sophomore All-American Yvonne Gutierrez had a team-best .384 average with 28 RBI, while Fernandez batted .310 with 22 RBI.

The Bruins quickly dispatched of Northern Iowa in Regional play and won their first four contests at the initial Women's College World Series to be played in Oklahoma City. For the third straight season, Fresno State stood in the way of UCLA and a national championship. Attempting to avenge their previous two losses, the Bulldogs won a 1-0 elimination game against the Bruins to force a winner-take-all final. UCLA jumped out to an early 1-0 lead with a first-inning run when Shanna Flynn scored on a wild pitch. Then in the third inning, a downpour caused the game to be suspended and resume the following afternoon. The Bruins came out the next day and immediately tacked on an insurance run in the bottom of the third when Kerry Dienelt drove in Michelle Montgomery. Compton took care of the rest, one-hitting the Bulldogs to finish off the three-peat. Dienelt, Fernandez, Flynn, Gutierrez and Longaker were named to the All-Tournament Team.

After Arizona spoiled UCLA's chances of four consecutive NCAA Championships in 1991, the Bruins exacted revenge the following year with a title-game victory against their Pac-10 rival. UCLA went 54-2 overall, but both losses came at the hands of Arizona, allowing the Wildcats to end the Bruins' run of four straight Pac-10 titles. UCLA started the season with 33 straight wins, crushing opponents by a 166-17 margin. Following their first loss to Arizona, the Bruins ran off another 14-game win streak, blanking foes in 10 of the victories. After falling in the regular-season finale against the Wildcats, UCLA finished the year with an undefeated postseason, including a title-game win over Arizona.

Junior Lisa Fernandez was masterful both in the circle and at the plate. She posted a nation-best ERA of 0.14 and was undefeated on the year at 29-0. The All-American and Honda Award winner was outstanding at the plate also, hitting .401 with 29 runs batted in. Not to be forgotten in the circle were junior hurlers DeeDee Weiman (11-1, 0.51 ERA) and Heather Compton (14-1, 0.67 ERA), who combined for 16 shutouts and 274 strikeouts. Senior All-American Yvonne Gutierrez was the powerful stick in the lineup, leading the club with a .406 average, 11 home runs and 58 RBI. Her 11 home runs tied for the NCAA lead. Fernandez and Gutierrez were joined on the All-American team by freshmen Joanne Alchin (.323 BA) and Kathi Evans (.363). As a team, the Bruins hit .304 and had five players bat above the .300 mark.

The Bruins skated past Utah in the Regional round and then blew away their first four opponents in the College World Series, winning by a combined score of 29-1 and recording two mercy-rule victories. In the championship game, it was a pitcher's duel between Fernandez and Arizona's Debby Day. The duo matched zeroes on the board until the bottom of the seventh inning. Gutierrez led off the frame with a single, moved over to second on a sacrifice by Jennifer Brundage and came home on Jenny Brewster's walk-off home run to left. Fernandez, who finished the year with 65 straight scoreless innings, was named to the All-Tournament Team along with Evans, Gutierrez and Kelly Inouye.

The winningest team in UCLA softball history set school records for runs scored (429), home runs (95) and total bases (1042), as the Bruins claimed the school's ninth national championship. UCLA posted a 63-6 record, defeating all its non-conference opponents while winning its sixth Pac-10 title with a 22-6 mark. The Bruins won a school-record 35 games to start the season, averaging more than 6.5 runs per game.

Recording one of the best individual years in the history of the sport, sophomore Stacey Nuveman shattered the UCLA single-season home run record and led the nation with 31 bombs and 91 runs batted in, also batting .446. Her 31 homers are the second-best, single-season total in NCAA history, while her 91 RBI are seventh-best. The national leaders didn't stop with Nuveman though, as junior Christie Ambrosi was atop the NCAA with 103 hits, posting a .429 average and a team-leading 25 stolen bases. Seven different players hit over .300 for the Bruins, who batted .339 as a team. In the circle, sophomore Courtney Dale and freshman Amanda Freed combined for 60 of the team's 63 victories. Dale was 33-1 with a 0.98 ERA and 218 strikeouts, while Freed was 27-4 with a 0.96 ERA and 187 strikeouts. A school-record six players were named All-Americans. Ambrosi, Dale, Freed and Nuveman were joined on the team by juniors Julie Adams and Julie Marshall.

The postseason was a clean sweep for the Bruins, going 4-0 in Regional play and 4-0 at the Women's College World Series. UCLA outscored its opponents 38-5 during Regionals, but things were considerably closer in the World Series, as all four contests were one-run games with two going extra innings. In the championship game against Washington, the Bruins jumped on the Huskies with two in the first and one in the second. Adams singled in a pair to put UCLA up 2-0 and Dale led off the second with a solo homer to make it a three-run game. Washington rallied and had the tying run on base in the final inning, but Freed retired the final batter to make the Bruins victorious. Adams was named Most Outstanding Player of the World Series and was joined on the All-Tournament Team by Ambrosi, Dale and Freed.

Behind one of the best pitching performances in College World Series championship game history, the Bruins won their 10th national title in 2003. Sporting a record of 54-7, UCLA had four first-team All-Americans in seniors Tairia Mims and Natasha Watley and juniors Keira Goerl and Claire Sua. On offense, five players hit above .300, led by Watley's .481 average. Leading the nation with 102 hits, Watley, who went on to win the Honda-Broderick Cup, added 10 home runs, 53 runs batted in and a team-best 35 stolen bases. Mims was the top power hitter with 22 homers and 70 RBI, hitting .449. Goerl led the nation in wins with 40, posting a 0.63 earned run average and 342 strikeouts.

After a perfect run through Regional play, UCLA went extra innings in its first College World Series game with California, but fell into the loser's bracket with a 7-3, 10-inning loss. Battling back, the Bruins beat Louisiana-Lafayette and Washington to advance to the semifinals against Texas. Needing to defeat the Longhorns twice to move on to the championship game, the Bruins shutout Texas 3-0 behind a two-hitter by Goerl. In the deciding matchup with Texas, the Bruins fell behind on an unearned run in the first and were down to their last out until a seventh-inning rally propelled them into the championship game. With two outs and Monique Mejia at second, Watley tied the game with a single and moved to second on the throw home. Caitlin Benyi completed the comeback with a single through the right side to win it 2-1. In the title game against California, Goerl didn't allow a hit through the first eight innings, but UCLA was also held in check on offense keeping the game scoreless. In the top of the ninth, Stephanie Ramos led off with a double and scored the go-ahead run on an RBI single by Toria Auelua. Still working on her no-hitter, Goerl retired the Golden Bears 1-2-3 in the ninth to send the Bruins to victory. Goerl was named Most Outstanding Player and her title game no-hitter was selected as one of the Top 25 Defining Moments in NCAA History during the NCAA's 100th anniversary in 2006. Mims and Watley also earned All-College World Series Tournament honors.

The Bruins made it back-to-back NCAA titles in 2004, hoisting the school's 11th national championship trophy in softball. UCLA had a 47-9 record, winning its first 25 games and holding a 27-1 mark heading into league play. Despite struggling to a 12-8 record and a fourth-place finish in conference action, the Bruins turned it on at the end of the regular season, winning their final five contests. Adding in a perfect 8-0 record in the postseason, UCLA won its final 13 games.

Sophomore All-American Caitlin Benyi led the country with 24 home runs, adding 43 runs batted in and a .379 batting average. Freshman Jodie Legaspi was second on the team with a .371 average, seven homers and 35 runs batted in, while senior Stephanie Ramos hit .356 with 12 homers and 31 RBI. In the circle, All-American Keira Goerl closed her career with an outstanding senior season, going 31-7 with a 1.02 ERA and 276 strikeouts. Freshman Lisa Dodd recorded a team-low earned run average of 0.79 with a 15-2 record in 115 2/3 innings.

After going a perfect 4-0 and outscoring their opponents 22-2 during Regional play, the Bruins continued their offensive prowess with an 8-2 victory against Stanford in the opening game of the College World Series. After downing LSU, the Bruins were taken to extra innings by Stanford in an elimination game for the Cardinal. Tied 1-1 going into the top of the 12th, UCLA scored twice on RBI doubles by Dodd and Ramos to go ahead 3-1. Goerl finished off Stanford in the bottom of the inning to send the Bruins to the title game against California for the second straight year. The Golden Bears jumped out to an early lead with a first-inning run and maintained it until the Bruins rallied in the fifth. Claire Sua led off with a homer and the Bruins continued the rally, putting runners at third and second with two outs. Kristen Dedmon came off the bench and got a big pinch-hit single up the middle to plate both runners and put UCLA up 3-1. Goerl held Cal off the scoreboard for the rest of the game to send the Bruins to the repeat title. Benyi, Dodd, Goerl and Legaspi were named to the All-CWS Tournament Team.

After a six-year drought, the Bruins were back on top of the softball mountain in 2010, claiming the program's 11th NCAA Championship and 12th National Title. UCLA set school, single-season records in home runs (108), slugging percentage (.602), on base percentage (.432) and walks (244).

The postseason began at home with a perfect 3-0 weekend during the Regional round, as the fifth-seeded Bruins defeated Saint Mary's (11-4), San Diego State (4-3) and Fresno State (7-2). After hitting 11 home runs in the three-game Regional, the Bruins blasted three in each of the Super Regional contests against Louisiana-Lafayette, winning 10-2 and 10-1. The pair of mercy-rule wins gave the Bruins 20, which set a school record.

In the Women's College World Series opener against Florida, the game was tied at three after two innings when UCLA scored 13 unanswered to mercy rule the Gators 16-3. The 16 runs were the most ever for UCLA in a postseason contest. The Bruins broke the school record for home runs the next evening against Hawai'i in a 5-2 win with three more bombs. A two-run shot and a three-run jack against Georgia accounted for the only five runs the Bruins needed in a 5-2 win to put the Bruins in the Championship Series against Arizona.

Game one of the Finals was an instant classic. After a two-out double in the bottom of the sixth by Monica Harrison gave the Bruins a 4-2 lead, the Wildcats rallied with three in the top of the seventh to go ahead 5-4. But with the help of a two-out Arizona miscue in the bottom of the seventh, UCLA scored the game-tying run on a Kaila Shull double to send the game into extra innings. The Wildcats left the bases loaded in the top of the eighth and the Bruins would take advantage in the bottom half, as Megan Langenfeld hit a 1-0 pitch over the center-field fence with two outs to give UCLA a thrilling 6-5 victory.

The next evening, Langenfeld and Andrea Harrison hit their WCWS-record fourth homers, as the Bruins routed Arizona 15-9 to finish off the championship run. Harrison also set a new WCWS mark with 11 runs batted in, while the Bruins' 14 homers were also a World Series record.

Langenfeld was named the WCWS' Most Outstanding Player, while Andrea Harrison and Samantha Camuso, who hit eight homers in the postseason, were also named to the All-Tournament Team. Along with their 108 home runs, the Bruins also set school, single-season records in slugging percentage (.602), on base percentage (.432) and walks (244).

#16 Lisa Fernandez • April 22, 1995

Lisa Fernandez's #16 jersey was the first number retired by the UCLA softball program in a ceremony prior to a doubleheader against California on April 22, 1995.

Fernandez, who enters her 19th year as an assistant coach for the Bruins in 2017, played for UCLA from 1990-93, earning four First Team All-American honors, four All-College World Series selections, three Pac-10 Player of the Year accolades and three Honda Awards. In 1993, she became the first softball player to win the prestigious Honda-Broderick Cup, awarded to the most outstanding collegiate female athlete in the nation.

As a senior in 1993, Fernandez led the country in both batting average (.510) and earned run average (0.25). Fernandez posted a 29-0 mark as a junior, a year in which she had a 0.14 ERA, the lowest mark by any player since that 1992 season. Fernandez also recorded a 42-game winning streak (Feb. 5, 1992-Apr. 4, 1993), the second-longest winning streak in softball history. Her career .930 winning percentage (93-7) and 0.22 earned run average rank her second in NCAA history. Fernandez, who hurled 11 career no-hitters, ranks in the UCLA Top 10 in numerous offensive and pitching categories. On the hitting charts, she is fourth in hits (287) and eighth in batting average (.382), while pitching-wise she is fifth in strikeouts (784). Fernandez is also tops at UCLA in shutouts with 74, which places her tied for ninth in the NCAA annals.

An eight-time ASA All-American, Fernandez was a member of the U.S. National Team from 1990-2008 and won Olympic gold medals with Team USA in 1996, 2000 and 2004. Fernandez was also enshrined in the UCLA Hall of Fame in 2003 and the ASA/USA National Hall of Fame in 2013.

#1 Dot Richardson • May 1, 1999

One of the most recognizable names and faces in the history of collegiate softball, Dot Richardson's #1 UCLA jersey was retired in a pregame ceremony on May 1, 1999 prior to a doubleheader against Oregon.

Richardson played for the Bruins from 1981-83 and was a member of UCLA's 1982 NCAA Championship team. She led the Bruins in hits and batting average each season and was named an All-American at the conclusion of those three years, earning First Team honors as a junior and senior. Richardson hit above .300 all three years, including a career-best .379 average in her first season in Westwood in 1981. She posted a marvelous walk-to-strikeout ratio, drawing 73 walks to just 16 strikeouts in three campaigns. Richardson was also named to the All-College World Series Team in 1982 and 1983 and was honored as the NCAA's Player of the Decade for the 1980's.

A 14-time Amateur Softball Association (ASA) All-American Selection, Richardson also earned seven ASA Best Defensive Player honors and three ASA National Championship Most Valuable Player awards. A member of the USA National Team program from 1979-2000, Richardson won a gold medal with the 1996 U.S. Olympic Team as a shortstop and was the second baseman on the gold-medal winning 2000 United States squad. Following the 1996 season, Richardson was named ASA Sportswoman of the Year.

In 1996, Richardson was the third softball player inducted into UCLA's Hall of Fame. She was also enshrined in the ASA Hall of Fame in 2006. Richardson earned her bachelor's degree in kinesiology from UCLA and is currently the head coach at Liberty University.

#6 Sue Enquist • April 29, 2000

In a surprise ceremony on April 29, 2000, the #6 jersey of former UCLA All-American and six-time national champion head coach Sue Enquist was retired prior to a game against California.

A four-year letterwinner from 1975-78, Enquist sparked the Bruins to their first National Championship, an AIAW title in 1978, and was the tournament's leading hitter. Enquist led the team in batting average and doubles three times, triples twice and homers and RBI once. An All-American in 1978, she led the Bruins with a .391 average, 45 hits, two home runs and seven doubles. She was also named All-Region in 1976, '77 and '78. Enquist still stands fourth on UCLA's all-time list with a .401 career average.

A three-time ASA All-American for the Raybestos Brakettes, Enquist helped lead that team to four ASA National Championships (1976-78, 1980). She also enjoyed success as a player at the international level, earning gold medals at three National Sports Festivals, the 1978 World Championships and the 1979 Pan American Games.

Enquist spent just one season away from the Bruins following her collegiate playing career, returning to UCLA as an assistant coach in 1980. She held that position until 1989, when she was elevated to co-head coach. As co-head coach or head coach (1997-2006), Enquist led the Bruins to six NCAA Championships. The first softball player to be inducted into the UCLA Hall of Fame in 1993, the three-time National Coach of the Year was enshrined into the National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA) Hall of Fame in 2006. Enquist retired on Sept. 26, 2006 with an 887-175-1 career record.

#2 Gina Vecchione • April 28, 2007

Gina Vecchione became the fourth UCLA softball player to have her jersey retired when she was honored prior to the Bruins' game against Oregon State on April 28, 2007.

As a player in Westwood, Vecchione earned All-Pacific Region honors in the outfield three straight campaigns (1980-82) and is one of 31 Bruins to receive the award at least three times. In 1981, she led the Bruins in doubles with 10 and tied for the team lead with three triples and 21 runs batted in. Vecchione again tied for the top spot in triples with four and runs batted in with 12 as a senior. In 1982, Vecchione was a member of the All-College World Series team, as the Bruins won the inaugural NCAA Softball Championship. Following that season, Vecchione received Second Team All-American honors.

After the conclusion of her collegiate career, Vecchione played 12 seasons with the Raybestos Brakettes, winners of eight ASA titles and three World titles. Vecchione was named to the ASA All-American team seven times and was the top hitter at the 1988 national tournament with a .444 average. Vecchione earned softball's top honor in 1997 when she became the first UCLA player inducted into the ASA Hall of Fame.

Returning to her alma mater as an assistant coach in 2000, Vecchione, who is currently an assistant at Cal Poly, helped the Bruins reach the NCAA Championship game or series in six of her 13 seasons, winning back-to-back titles in 2003 and 2004, and another title in 2010. The Bruins amassed a 609-160-1 record during her 13 campaigns for a .792 winning percentage. During Vecchione's tenure, UCLA was tabbed as the NFCA Regional Coaching Staff of the Year in 2000 and '04 and NFCA National CSOY in 2004 and '10.

#9 Lisa Longaker • May 7, 2011

In a ceremony on May 7, 2011 prior to a game against Arizona, Lisa Longaker's #9 jersey was retired, the fifth in program history.

A three-time First Team All-American and All-Region selection, Longaker was a part of three straight NCAA Championships for the Bruins from 1988-1990. She is also one of only five Bruins to earn four First Team All-Pac-10/12 honors and was a two-time Honda Award winner ('88 and '90), recognizing the sport's top player.

After making the All-Tournament Team at the Women's College World Series as a freshman in 1987, Longaker was the winning pitcher in the '88 championship game against Fresno State, striking out three in a six-hit shutout, her 23rd blanking of the season. She posted an 18-1 record and a 0.64 ERA the following season during the Bruins' second straight championship campaign. One year later, Longaker completed her collegiate career with another title, again going 18-1 with a 0.40 ERA.

Longaker sits in the all-time UCLA Top 10 in all eight pitching categories, ranking third in saves (7), fifth in earned run average (0.40), shutouts (61) and complete games (96), tied for sixth in innings pitched (725.2), seventh in wins (89), eighth in appearances (113) and ninth in strikeouts (698).

Longaker led the Bruins in ERA in 1987 (0.35) and 1988 (0.30), wins, strikeouts, shutouts, innings and complete games three times ('87, '88 and '90) and appearances every season. She tossed five no-hitters, including a perfect game, the ninth in program history, against Arizona State on April 7, 1990.

A member of the NCAA All-Decade Team (1980's) and the NCAA 25th-Anniversary Team, Longaker was inducted into the UCLA Athletics Hall of Fame in 2001.

#17 Debbie Doom • February 15, 2014

Bruin pitching great Debbie Doom became the sixth player in program history to have her jersey retired when her #17 was enshrined on Feb. 15, 2014.

A three-time All-American and two-time First Team selection, Doom helped the Bruins to three National Championships, earning the victory in the circle in the 1982, 1984 and 1985 title contests. The Most Valuable Player of the '82 Women's College World Series, she struck out 12 in eight shutout innings against Fresno State. Doom was named All-WCWS in '84 and '85, fanning 15 in 13 spotless frames versus Texas A&M in 1984 and striking out 10 in nine innings against Nebraska in 1985. In her three championship game victories, Doom struck out 37 in 30 innings, allowing just one unearned run.

Doom is in the UCLA Top 10 in six categories, ranking second with 66 shutouts, third with 952 strikeouts and tied for third with a 0.29 earned run average, winning 73 games. Her best statistical season came in 1984 when she posted a 0.10 ERA and 24 wins, all shutouts. Doom led the Bruins in strikeouts and innings pitched all four seasons. She holds the single-game school record for strikeouts with 25, done three different times, and also tossed eight no-hitters, including a school-best six perfect games.

The four-team All-Region honoree was the 1984 Honda Award winner, given to the sport's best player that season. She was named to the NCAA All-Decade Team for the 1980's and the NCAA 25th Anniversary Team. In 1995, Doom was inducted into the UCLA Hall of Fame.

On Jan. 6, 1997, the UCLA softball program entered a new era as Sharron Backus announced her retirement from coaching after 22 years of leading the Bruins.

Considered by many a softball icon, Backus was the guiding force of the top softball program in the nation at UCLA. Owner of the second-best winning percentage in NCAA Division I softball history, Backus coached 22 seasons, posting an 854-173-3 (.831) lifetime record - all at UCLA. Included in that impressive 22-year slate was a 111-32 (.776) mark in postseason play.

Backus and the Bruins brought eight national championship trophies to Westwood (seven NCAA and one AIAW), including an unprecedented three in a row (1988, '89 and '90). The Backus era's trophy case also includes four second-place finishes and three third-place awards. Her UCLA teams played in the Women's College World Series 16 times, and after the Bruins joined the NCAA in 1982, Backus' squads made the WCWS every year they made the NCAA Tournament.

Including her award as the Pacific-10 Conference Coach of the Year in 1995, Backus earned the league's top honor four times in her final seven seasons, also winning in 1990, 1992 and 1993. In 1990, Backus was chosen Northwest Region Coach of the Year by the National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA). She was also selected as the Diamond National and Western Collegiate Athletic Association (WCAA) Coach of the Year in 1984 and 1985.

Backus has been enshrined in several Halls of Fame in recognition of her contributions as a player and coach. The Amateur Softball Association (ASA) Hall of Fame recognized her as one of the most honored players and coaches with induction in 1985. In 1992, the NFCA Hall of Fame welcomed Backus, honoring her tremendous successes in collegiate softball. In 1993, the Women's Sports Foundation Hall of Fame inducted Backus, spotlighting her enormous contributions to women's athletics. And in 2001, Backus was inducted into the UCLA Athletics Hall of Fame in her first year of eligibility.

The Bruin mentor is most noted for her ability to teach the fundamentals. In fact, UCLA did not commit a single error in WCWS play in the championship seasons of 1978, 1982 and 1988. Backus provided solid background in the handling of pitchers such as Debbie Doom, Tracy Compton, Lisa Longaker, Lisa Fernandez and DeeDee Weiman and hitters such as Fernandez, Janice Parks, Yvonne Gutierrez and Jennifer Brundage. Backus coached the first softball player to win the most prestigious honor in women's athletics, as Fernandez won the 1993 Honda-Broderick Cup, which recognized her as the most outstanding collegiate female athlete in all sports during the 1992-93 season.

UCLA's strength in fundamentals evolved from Backus' legendary ASA playing career. The Cal State Fullerton graduate was instrumental in seven ASA titles (1961, 1965 and 1971-75) and two international championships (1972 and 1974). A star shortstop, Backus was named to numerous ASA All-America teams during her playing career. She also played professional softball for the Connecticut Falcons from 1976-78, when the team won three World Championships.

A native of Anaheim and a resident of Fullerton, Backus continued her coaching duties in the professional ranks, coaching in the Women's Pro Softball League (WPSL). In 1998, she was named WPSL Coach of the Year after leading the Orlando Wahoos to the league championship. Backus also went on to serve as the Director of Player Personnel for the WPSL. She earned a bachelor's degree in Physical Education in 1969 from Cal State Fullerton, along with her teaching credential, which enabled her to teach at Western High School before coming to UCLA.

After spending 31 years as a player, assistant coach or head coach in the UCLA softball program, Sue Enquist announced her retirement from coaching on Sept. 26, 2006.

Enquist spent 10 years as the Bruins' head coach, taking over that role for the 1997 season following the retirement of longtime mentor Sharron Backus. Enquist compiled a 484-119-1 (.802) from 1997-2006 and an overall mark of 887-175-1 (.835) in 18 seasons of coaching, serving as co-head coaches with Backus from 1989-96. Enquist's .835 winning percentage puts her at the top of the NCAA charts for Division I head softball coaches. As co-head and head coach, Enquist led the Bruins to six national championships (1989, 1990, 1992, 1999, 2003, 2004) and seven Pacific-10 Conference titles. Before being named co-head coach, Enquist spent nine seasons (1980-88) as an assistant under Backus, with the Bruins posting a record of 352-85-3 (.803).

A three-time Pac-10 Coach of the Year (1995, 1999, 2006), Enquist was named National Coach of the Year by the National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA) three times in 1992, 1995 and 2004. She also led coaching staffs that were named NFCA Regional Coaching Staff of the Year in 2000 and NFCA National Coaching Staff of the Year in 2004. Enquist coached 60 All-Americans during her 18 seasons as head coach and seven Honda Award winners, including Natasha Watley, who became the second softball player in UCLA history in 2003 to earn the Honda-Broderick Cup, given to the most outstanding collegiate female athlete in all sports.

Enquist was either a player or coach on 11 UCLA national championship teams, including the program's first as a member of the Association of Intercollegiate Athletics for Women (AIAW) in 1978 when she was the tournament's leading hitter. When the NCAA brought women's sports under its umbrella starting with the 1982 season, the Bruins won the inaugural championship.

As one of eight softball coaches chosen to work with the U.S. National Team, Enquist was involved in the preparation of the gold-medal winning U.S. Olympic Team for the 1996 Summer Games in Atlanta, the inaugural Games for softball as an Olympic sport.

After graduating from San Clemente High School in December of 1974, Enquist went on to play four seasons for Backus from 1975-78. Enquist became the prototypical player for Bruin softball in terms of attitude, desire and will to win. UCLA's first softball All-American, Enquist led the Bruins in batting average and doubles three times, triples twice and homers and runs batted in once. A three-time All-Region selection, Enquist still stands fourth on UCLA's all-time list with a .401 career batting average. On April 29, 2000, Enquist's No. 6 jersey was immortalized when it became the third number in Bruin softball history to be retired.

A three-time ASA All-American for the Raybestos Brakettes, Enquist helped lead them to four ASA National Championships (1976-78, '80). She also enjoyed success as a player at the international level, earning gold medals at three National Sports Festivals, the 1978 World Championships and the '79 Pan American Games.

Away from the field, Enquist has received numerous honors, including induction into five Halls of Fame. In 1993, she became the first softball player inducted into the UCLA Athletics Hall of Fame. In 2000, Enquist was enshrined into the Capistrano Unified School District Hall of Fame, and in 2006, she was inducted into the NFCA Hall of Fame. In June of 2008, Enquist was inducted into the International Women's Sports Hall of Fame. Seven years later, she was enshrined into the ASA Hall of Fame. Enquist was recognized with the 2004 C. Vivian Stringer Coaching Award by the United States Sports Academy. The award pays tribute to those who have made significant contributions to sports and is named in honor of C. Vivian Stringer, the Women's Basketball Hall of Famer who is the only coach to take three different schools to the Final Four.

A pioneer in softball technology, Enquist invented the SB401 training bat and the Kwik-Slide Sliding Wrap. She also completed a series of 20 instructional videos, released in 2003, and partnered with former UCLA and Major League Baseball catcher Don Slaught on the RightViewPro hitting instructional software.

Enquist earned her bachelor's degree in kinesiology from UCLA in 1980. A native of San Clemente, Enquist surfed professionally from 1979-1981 and continues to be an avid surfer. She currently resides in Huntington Beach, Calif.

Since softball became an Olympic sport for the 1996 Atlanta Games, 15 Bruin alums have participated on the world's biggest stage in their quest to bring home gold for their country. Eleven of those players have put on the Red, White and Blue for the United States and succeeded in winning medals in all four Olympic softball competitions. In the first Olympic softball competition in 1996, Team USA went 8-1, with its lone loss coming to Australia in round-robin play. In the championship game, the U.S. defeated China 3-1 behind the hitting of Sheila Cornell and Dot Richardson, who each homered and combined for all three RBI in the victory. Lisa Fernandez, who defeated China in the semifinals, recorded the final out to clinch the gold for the Americans. Former Bruins Jennifer Brundage and Christa Williams also earned gold. Joanne Alchin, Kerry Dienelt and Tanya Harding won bronze medals with Australia.

Four years later in Sydney, Australia, the United States won its second-straight gold medal, but it didn't come easy. After seeing its 112-game winning streak snapped with an extra-inning loss to Japan during round-robin play, Team USA lost its next two games in the preliminaries to China and Australia. But they would avenge all three losses in the medal round to win the gold. In the first semifinal against China, the U.S. claimed a 3-0 win in 10 innings. With Brundage and Cornell ahead of her on the base paths in the third extra inning, Stacey Nuveman launched a walk-off homer to send her team to a second semifinal against Australia. Against the host country, Richardson drove in the game's lone run and Fernandez struck out 13 in a 1-0 U.S. victory. In the gold-medal game against Japan, Fernandez picked up the win in a 2-1 triumph to give the United States its second-straight gold medal. Former Bruin Christie Ambrosi also won gold, while Amanda Freed was an alternate for the team. Alchin (Brown), Dienelt and Harding again won the bronze with Australia.

In 2004 in Athens, Greece, the U.S. was anointed as "The Real Dream Team" by Sports Illustrated. Team USA posted a perfect 9-0 record and shutout the competition in eight of those victories. The U.S. outscored its opponents 51-1 and did not allow a run until the sixth inning of the gold-medal contest against Australia. For the second-straight, gold-medal game, Fernandez earned the win in the circle. Fernandez, a three-time gold medalist, was joined on the team by former Bruins Nuveman, Freed, Tairia (Mims) Flowers and Natasha Watley. Harding represented Australia, winning a silver medal.

In 2008 in Beijing, China, Team USA steamrolled through pool play with a 7-0 record, outscoring its opponents 53-1. In the semifinals, a 4-1 victory over Japan put the United States in the gold-medal game for the fourth consecutive time. But for the first time in four Olympic competitions, the U.S. did not win the gold, as Japan claimed a 3-1 victory to upset the favorites. Nuveman won her third Olympic medal, Flowers and Watley each earned their second and Andrea Duran claimed her first Olympic medal. Fernandez was an alternate for the Olympic team. Australia won the bronze for Harding's fourth medal.

On July 11, 2005, the International Olympic Committee voted to drop softball from the Olympics, and on Aug. 13, 2009, the IOC denied softball's application for reinstatement. On Sept. 8, 2013, a baseball-softball combined delegation lost out to wrestling for reinstatement into the 2020 Olympic Games in Tokyo, Japan. However, on Aug. 3, 2016, the baseball-softball bid was approved for addition into the Tokyo 2020 Games, along with the sports of karate, skateboarding, sports climbing and surfing.

National Pro Fastpitch

ANDREA DURAN, NATASHA WATLEY & GIONNA DISALVATORE

The Women's Profastpitch League (WPF) began play on May 30, 1997. Since its inception, the league has undergone many changes with franchise locations and league names, changing to the Women's Pro Softball League (WPSL) in 1999. Suspending play following the 2000 campaign, the league, renamed as National Pro Fastpitch (NPF), resumed on June 1, 2004. The five-team league currently has franchises in Akron, Ohio (Akron Racers), San Marcos, Texas (Texas Charge), Kissimmee, Fla. (USSSA Pride), Rosemont, Ill. (Chicago Bandits) and Conroe, Texas (Scrap Yard Dawgs).

UCLA players have decorated NPF rosters since the league began play. In 1997, the Orlando Wahoos won the league's first title and were led by Bruin pitchers B'Ann Burns and Debbie Doom. In 1998, Bruin alum Dot Richardson became a WPF Spokesperson, and later that season, DeeDee Weiman tossed the first perfect game in league history. Orlando once again won the championship in '98 and Bruins Doom, Kaci Clark, Nicole Odom and Alleah Poulson were on the squad, which was coached by UCLA great Sharron Backus, who was named WPSL Coach of the Year. In 1999, the Tampa Bay FireStix claimed the title with Bruin hurlers Weiman and Heather Compton on the squad. Clark won her second league championship in 2000 when the Florida Wahoos won the title. In the league's return for 2004, the New York/New Jersey Juggernaut captured the crown, with Clark earning her third championship and joined by Bruin alum Lyndsey Klein. In 2010, Bruin Olympians Andrea Duran and Natasha Watley led the USSSA Pride to the Cowles Cup Championship. In 2013, Duran and Watley were joined by GiOnna DiSalvatore and the trio helped the Pride to the 2013 Cowles Cup title. A year later, that trio was joined by Amanda Kamekona, as the Pride went back-to-back.
